SUMMARY

Full-Stack Developer with expertise in the MERN (MongoDB, Express.js, React, Node.js) stack. My experience includes developing fundamental CRUD (Create, Read, Update, Delete) projects, which has deepened my understanding of these technologies.

In addition to my work with MERN, I am actively expanding my skill set by learning emerging technologies such as AI, AR, VR, and natural computation. This continuous learning reflects my commitment to staying current with industry trends and delivering high-quality, forward-thinking solutions.

EXPERIENCE
